

Romeo and Juliet -- The Cast

Members of the Capulet family:	Members of the Montague family:
Capulet -- head of the household;	Montague -- head of the household;
Lady Capulet -- his wife;	Lady Montague -- his wife;
Juliet -- their daughter; 13;	Romeo -- their son;
Tybalt -- Juliet's teenage cousin;	Benvolio -- Romeo's teenage cousin;
Sampson -- a servant;	Abram -- a servant;
Gregory -- a servant;	Balthasar -- a servant; Romeo's own servant;
Nurse -- Juliet's friend, and confidante; assigned to raise Juliet;	Friar Laurence -- Romeo's friend, and confidante; (not actually a member of the family);

Others
Prince Escalus -- the Prince of the city of Verona;
Mercutio -- Romeo's friend, and a nephew to the Prince;
Paris -- a gentleman who wants to marry Juliet. also a nephew to the Prince;
An Apothecary;
Friar John;
Three musicians;
An old man, a kin to Capulet;
An officer;
Citizens of Verona, including maskers, torchbearers, pages, guards, watchmen, etc.

The Body Count:

Six characters die during the play. Five of these die on stage. Note also: Some may have died in the fight scene in Act I, Scene 1;

Mercutio -- Mercutio is stabbed by Tybalt, in a public square in Verona.

Tybalt -- Tybalt is stabbed by Romeo, in a public square in Verona.

Paris -- Paris is stabbed by Romeo, in front of the Capulet's tomb, at night.

Lady Montague -- "Grief" over her son's banishment "stopped up her breath."

Romeo -- Romeo drinks a poison, in the Capulet's tomb.

Juliet -- Juliet stabs herself, in the Capulet's tomb.